

Words from our Mayor

As November draws to a close, it is time for me to write the final Mayors column for 2019. We began 2019 full of optimism and were preparing for a busy year. It was definitely a good year for town council, administration and staff. Through all our challenges we managed to complete several projects. Weather delayed our main project which was upgrading the infrastructure on Railroad Ave. We are preparing to start it in 2020. Our aging town buildings got a little TLC this year.

Many things were accomplished but a lot still remains to be done. As we prepare our 2020 budget, we have been told that going forward there is going to be less dollars for us to count on. There are increases coming from all fronts or should I say groups. More is being asked of us as a community to fund with less revenue. We have no reserves to help lessen the impact of higher requisitions. The only area the town has to gain more revenue is through taxation. When you have an aging infrastructure and limited resources, there is not much one can do. Rest assured, we will endeavour to do the best we can with what we have. Increased requisitions for education, Eagle Hill Foundation, Regional landfill, etc. must be passed on because legislation mandates it. Our struggle is not unique, but the time may come in the future to look at alternatives. On behalf of town council, administration, staff and all our families, may you all have a Merry Christmas and a prosperous & healthy New Year.

Winter is coming! Help prevent falls by:

- Take care of icy and slippery areas
With winter upon us, the frequency of falls outside increases due to icy surfaces, wet entrance floors and snow-covered objects.
- Pay attention in high traffic areas

Having great housekeeping routines and regular safety checks where you have walking access can prevent injuries.
